MEET YOUR GUIDE:

Gus the Goat

Throughout the pages of your catalog, Gus will share how every one of these gifts can stop someone from going to bed hungry tonight.

Plus, Gus is the star of the fun activity just for kids on page 12.

Whether you choose to give a food box, chickens, or clean water, your gift will meet an urgent need, help alleviate hunger for someone facing a crisis, and bring gospel hope to the front lines of suffering.

*"A generous person will be blessed,
for he shares his food with the poor."*

—Proverbs 22:9

"And if you offer yourself to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted one, then your light will shine in the darkness, and your night will be like noonday."

—Isaiah 58:10

Gabriel says, "God has blessed me and my family . . ."

"The pig that was given to me and my family has been a big blessing, helping our family income and enabling me to send my children to school," says Gabriel in the Philippines.

Gabriel's village is very isolated. Many people are malnourished, don't have access to quality medical care, and are trapped in extreme poverty.

Gabriel and his family not only received a pig, but he also took part in a special program through Send Relief that provided specialized agriculture training and Bible study.

"Our pig has had many offspring which I am able to sell and use the money from the sale for our family's daily needs. I am so grateful to the Lord for all that I learned from the training. God has blessed me and my family through the program."

You can bless another family with pigs so they can support themselves!

Animals like me can help families moo-ve from hunger to feeling full! You might not think twice about having milk or eggs with your breakfast—but for some kids, that's a big deal. Next time you eat, will you stop and pray for other kids around the world to have what they need too?

Provide Clean Water

Nearly 1 person in 10 worldwide lives without clean water!

Well project reaches Muslims with clean water and the gospel

In West Africa, thanks to compassionate friends like you, a Send Relief project provided wells to give 44 villages access to clean water. These areas were selected by local Christians because of the large numbers of Internally Displaced People. Formerly Muslim families who are now believers are often not accepted by their neighbors and frequently persecuted.

By meeting an urgent need, the clean water project became a living witness to the gospel. It opened doors for individual testimony, one-on-one evangelism, discipleship, and distribution of biblically based materials in local languages. God blessed this work, and 620 people became new believers!

“Digging wells is an act of grace. Those who did this know the true meaning of religion,” said a teacher of the Koran, whose community benefited from the project. He invited two of the project coordinators to meet with the entire student body of his Koranic school and explain the gospel of Jesus Christ. Several of the students became believers with his permission, and one advanced scholar did, too!

“A generous person will be enriched, and the one who gives a drink of water will receive water.” — Proverbs 11:25

Did you know clean water helps fight hunger? When families have safe water to drink and cook with, they stay healthier! It's a simple gift that makes a big difference.

CARE FOR Refugees

"Pure and undefiled religion before God the Father is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself unstained from the world." — James 1:27

Family receives love, prayer, and a microloan

Karim is a refugee in Northern Africa. He and his family lost everything because of war and fled their home country. Karim found work as an iron welder but he was paid poorly and treated badly by his employer.

When the Send Relief team visited his home—thanks to support from friends like you—Karim was surprised by the love and care they showed his family. He was thrilled to receive a microloan for tools, so he could start his own welding shop and work to provide for his family. After some time, Karim asked our volunteers for a Bible.

During this same time, our staff connected with his wife and prayed with her for a medical issue. She believed there was power in these prayers and joined a Bible study with our team to learn more about Jesus.

When you choose items from this Gift Catalog, you help make stories like this possible. Thank you!

RESPOND TO Crisis

"God is our refuge and strength, a helper who is always found in times of trouble."

—Psalm 46:1

When disaster strikes, a hot meal can bring comfort in the chaos. It tells someone, "You're not alone." Quick, compassionate responses—like food and prayer—can be the first step toward rebuilding hope.

Next time you hear about a disaster, pray for the people trying to recover and the people who are there to help.

“This is about neighbor helping neighbor.”

When Hurricane Helene hit the US in 2024, it left a path of destruction throughout the Southeast, damaging or destroying over 125,000 homes, leaving families desperate for help. People were left with no shelter, no power, no food, and what could have easily seemed like no hope.

Thankfully, thousands of Southern Baptist Disaster Relief volunteers from around the country—equipped by your gifts to Send Relief—worked to provide meals, repair homes, remove debris, and much more.

One of those volunteers, David, brought his chainsaw and worked to remove fallen trees that were blocking roads and driveways. When asked why, David said, “This is about neighbor helping neighbor, even if I live four hours away, and to tell them there’s hope in Jesus even in the darkest hour. What better reason is there?”

Demonstrating the love of Jesus to a teen in need

When an 18-year-old was in need of a safe place to live, a supervisor with Child Protective Services reached out to a Send Relief ministry center. She had called several local organizations and shelters but was unsuccessful. The team was able to coordinate housing for her while waiting to hear back on apartment applications.

Once she got her apartment, a local church provided everything she needed from furniture to groceries. The church also gave her a Bible and has stayed connected, offering support and encouragement.

The generosity of friends like you made it possible to not only show how the Church can step in to offer real help and gospel hope, but also walk alongside this teen for the long haul—through her tough time and beyond.

Kids are great—both human and goat. Don't you agree? Check out these pages for great ways to feed and care for children in need.

Though well under 18, Aaliyah found herself married to a much older man in her community in South Asia. When he divorced her soon after, she faced the social stigma of divorce along with the likelihood that no other man would want to marry her.

Women in this situation often resort to begging or selling their bodies to survive, but thankfully, Aaliyah's elderly, widowed mother allowed her to move back home. But living in a government housing project with no regular income, Aaliyah faced a bleak future.

Because of gifts to Send Relief, Aaliyah was equipped to support herself through training in both health and agriculture. She was also given seeds for a garden, chickens, and goats. Now, thanks to caring friends like you, Aaliyah says she has a renewed sense of hope for her future.
