To be plainly instructed that the main end of life and studies is to know God and Jesus Christ.

On that day a great persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout Judea and Samaria.

ACTS 8:1

Churches are crowded, schoolhouses are converted into chapels, converts numbered by the scores of thousands. In this city, we have beheld a site which not the most enthusiastic fanatic for church observances could ever have hoped to look upon.

New York Times, 1858

The things which you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, entrust these to FAITHFUL people who will be ABLE to teach others also.

2 TIMOTHY 2:2

“You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the HOLY SPIRIT. As your fathers did, so do you.”
... But he, full of the HOLY SPIRIT, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.

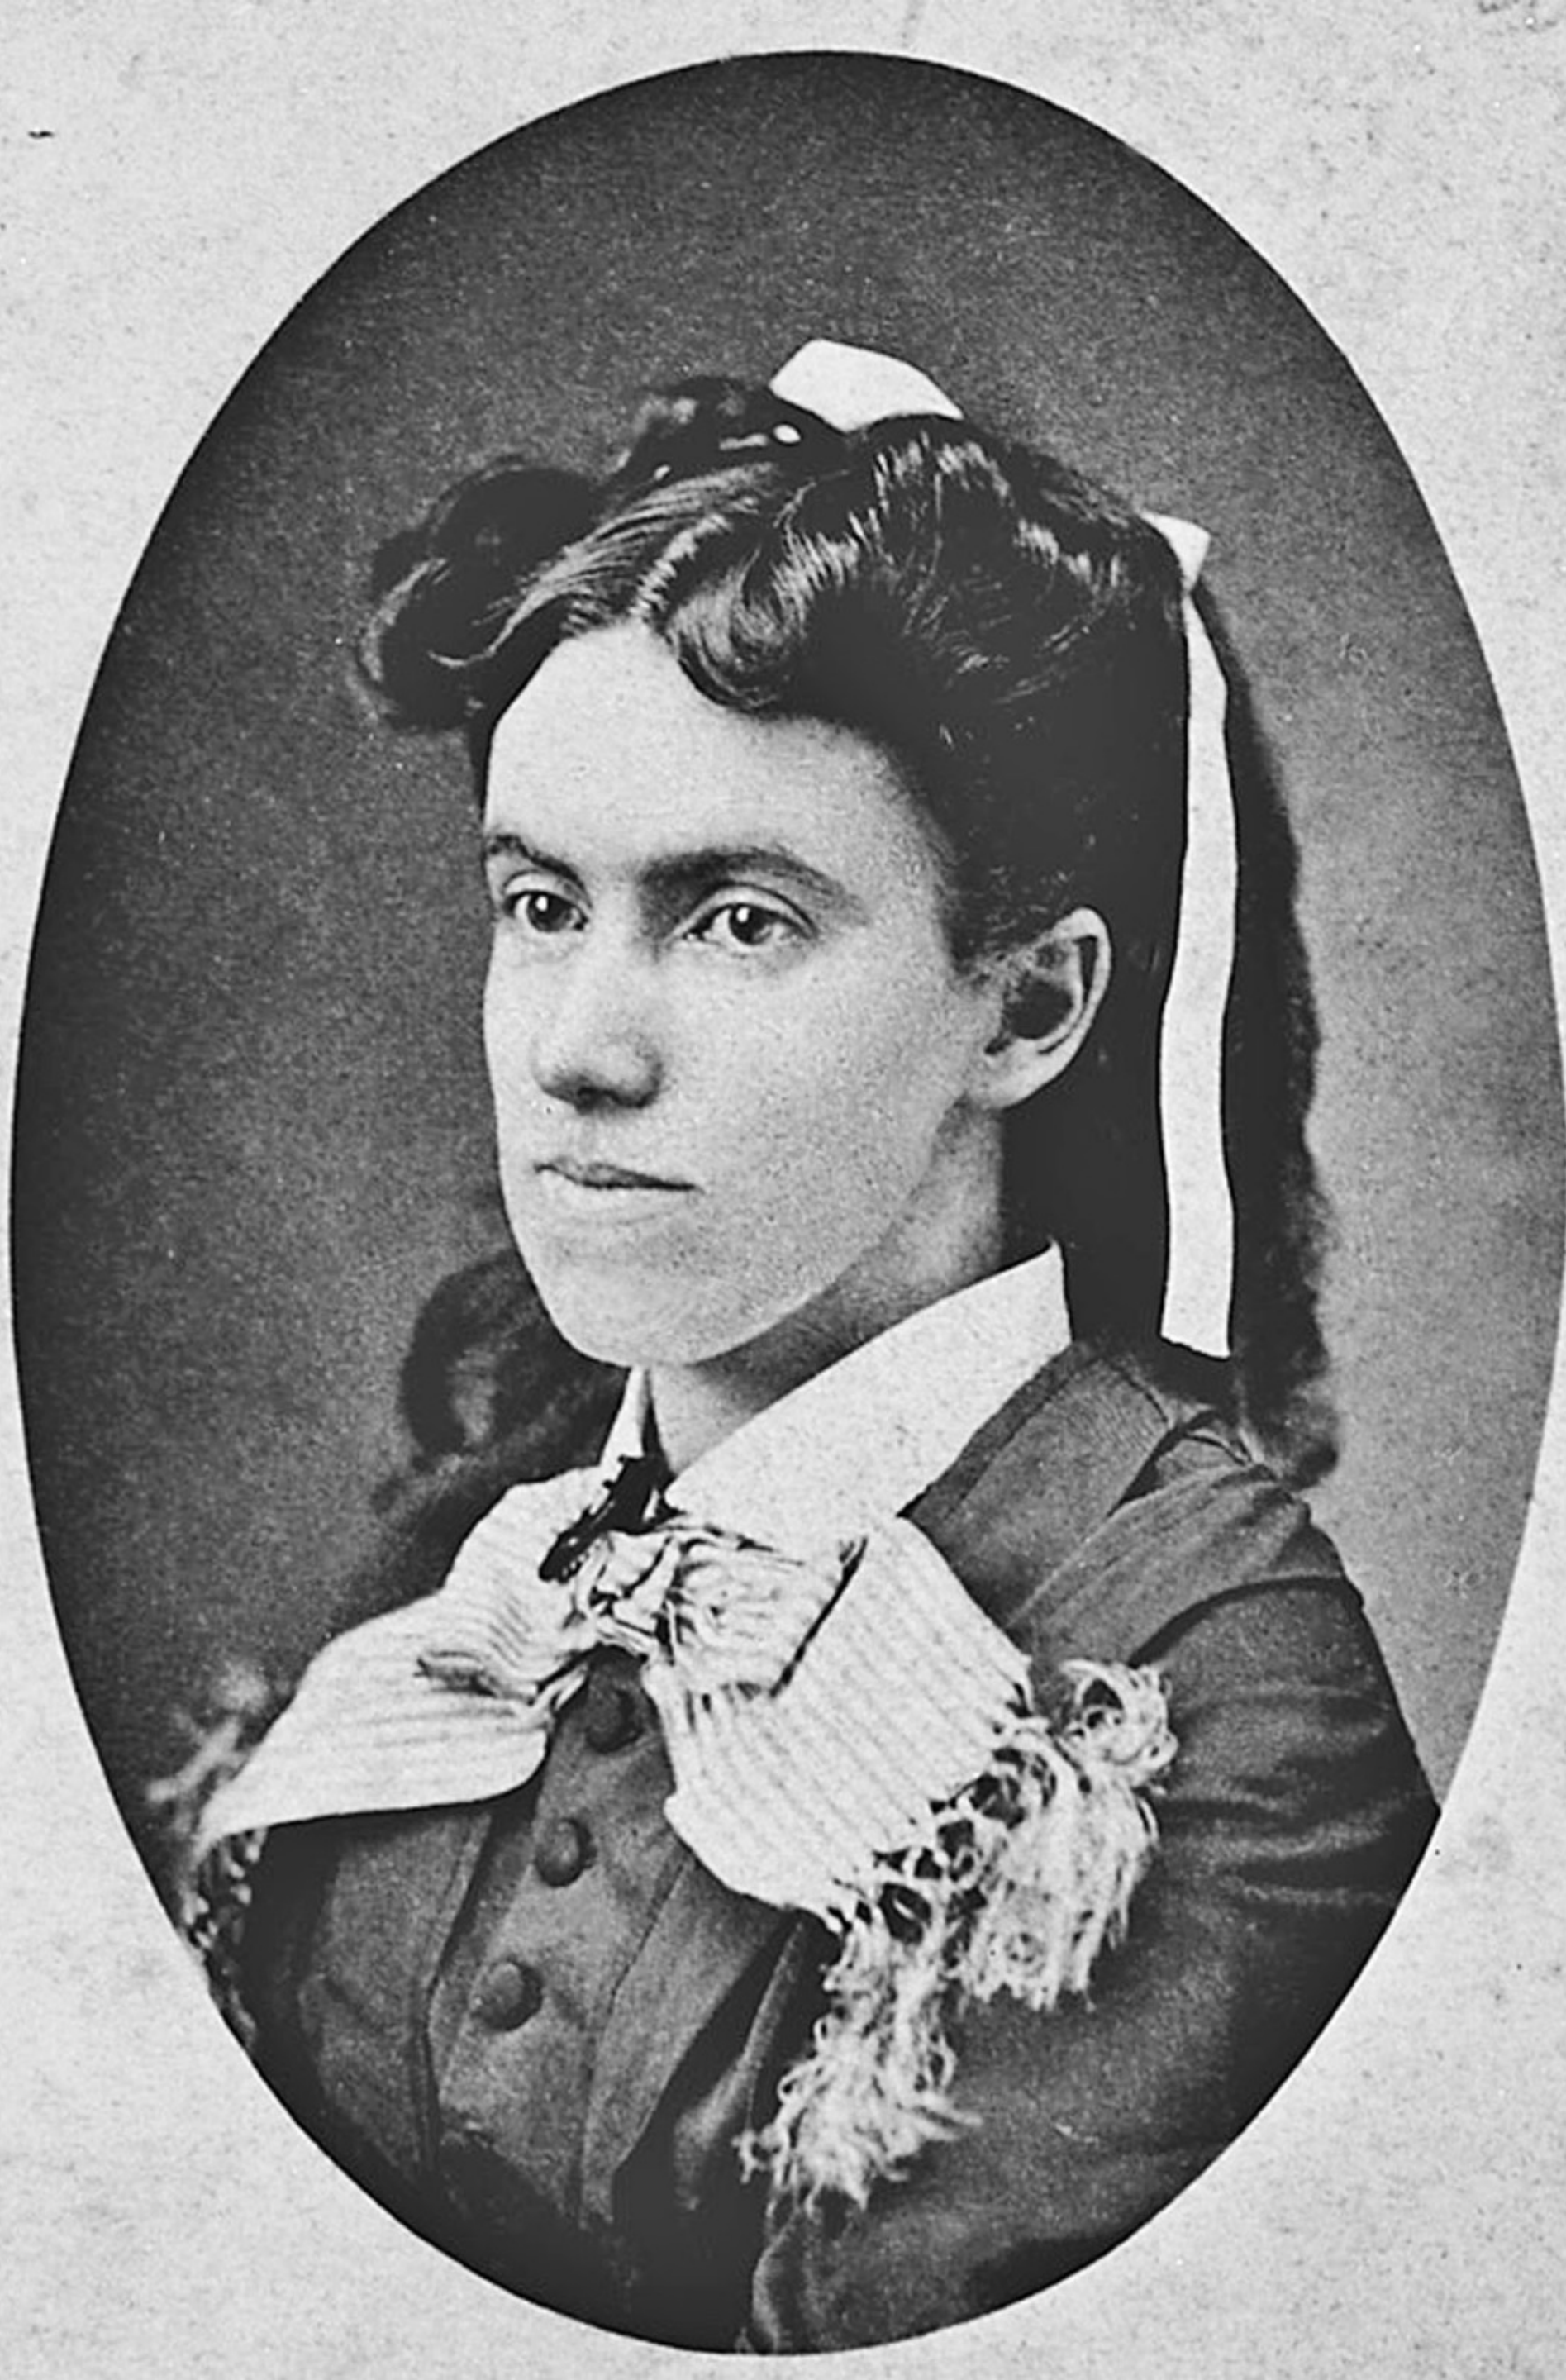

ACTS 7:51, 55

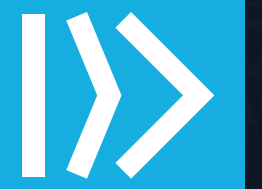

We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God...

2 CORINTHIANS 10:5

Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah there. When the crowds heard Philip and saw the signs he performed, they all paid close attention to what he said. For with shrieks, impure spirits came out of many, and many who were paralyzed or lame were healed. So there was great joy in that city.

ACTS 8:4-8

Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip,
“Go south to the road — the desert road —
that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.”

ACTS 8:26
